Writ Appeal No.134 of 2005

JUDGMENT: (Per LNR,J)

The appellant claimed the social status of S.C. on the strength of a Caste Certificate issued to him. Through proceedings dated 15.10.2004, the Collector and District Magistrate, Nellore, 2nd respondent herein cancelled the caste certificate. Aggrieved by that, the appellant filed an appeal before the 1st respondent herein under the provisions of the A.P. (S.Cs, S.Ts & B.Cs) Regulation of Issue of Community Certificates Act, 1993 (for short 'the Act'). He has also filed an application for stay. Through order, dated 21.12.2004, the 1st respondent dismissed the application for stay. Challenging the same, the appellant filed W.P.No.25102 of 2004. Through order, dated 31.12.2004, the learned Single Judge took the view that the impugned order does not accord with law and has set aside the same. However, no further relief in the form of stay was granted. It is in this background that the writ appeal is preferred.

Heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned counsel for the respondents.

The appellant preferred appeal before the 1st respondent way back in the year 2004. By this time, it may have been disposed of. The writ petition and the writ appeal relate to the application filed for stay. We are not inclined to grant any relief in that behalf at this stage.

Therefore, the writ appeal is disposed of directing that in case, the appeal preferred before the 1st respondent is still pending, it may be taken up and disposed of within one month.

The miscellaneous petition filed in this appeal shall also stand disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
